TELECTIONE No. 12.

Hongkong, March 22nd, 1888,

In view of recent events at Saigon and in the neighbouring French possessions, the budget for Cochin-China, which came into force on the 1st March by decree of the Governor, has been auxiously looked for in FOURTEEN THOUSAND AND FIVE HUNDRED the colony. It was late in making its appearance, the delay being explained by the many alterations the Governor has had to make in the figures as proposed by the Co-The MAPS and PLANS have been mostly lonial Council. The first point that attracts attention is the constitutional, change that has been effected in the powers of the latter body. Formerly the Council passed the Supply Ordinance and the Governor approved it. Now the Colonial Council has been relegated to mere consultative functions, and in the Ordinance itself is not mentioned, the Governor's Privy Council taking its place as the enacting body, PLAN OF TOWN AND ENVIRONS OF SINGAPORE. The financial position in the neighbouring French colony is at present rather compl cated, as besides the budget of Cochin China there will now be that of Indo-China, which, however, no details are known as yet A description of Chinese Festivals, Fasts, &c., except that the revenue is to be derived from contributions made by Cochin-China, Cambodia, Annam, and Tonquin, and from certain specific items of taxation which have been transferred from the local budgets to the general one. The income from the postal and telegraph services, for instance, does not appear in the local revenue, and, on the other hand, the cost of the mative troops, the exof closely printed matter, to which reference is penses of the postal and telegraph services and the cost of the collection of indirect taxes are to be borne by the general Government. The salary of the Governor-General (200,000 francs) will come out of the general budget; that of the Lieut.-Governor (80,000 francs) appears in the local budget.

The total revenue of Cochin-China for the year has been calculated at $7,449,735.90 In most of the items an increase on the receipts of last year is anticipated, as, for instance, in the taxes on villages, poll-tax on the Annamites, Government lands and forests, etc. The estimated revenue from the poll-tax on Chinese is set down at $470,000, which is $5,000 more than last year, although the rate remains about the same, namely, $8.76 for the third class. Accurate comparisons are almost impossible, as the budget is made up this year in dollars, whereas last year it was made up in francs. It would seem, however, that the Government anticipates an increase in the number of Chinese. On the other hand, the harbour and light dues are estimated to yield only $90,750, which is $32,300 less than last year. The decrease is accounted for by the falling Subjects in China and Japan, 1865, 1877, off in trade caused by the new Customs tariff. The proposal of the Colonial Council to reduce the barbour dues from 38 cents to 30 cents per ton has not been assented to. The opium monopoly is expected to yield-$119,375 less than last year. The export duty on rice is expected to viold $250,000 Company have been reluctantly compelled to deless than last year, the duty having-been reduced to 15 cents per picul. The income from this source has been estimated on a probable export of about 81 million picula. In 1887 the quantity exported was 7,912,000 piculs, but it is hoped that with the stocks still on hand and the favourable appearance of the present crop, the export this year will be larger. The revenue from the Gambling Farm, which last year yielded no less than held on Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. 2,376,355 francs, disappears altogether, The Rating Ordinance, 1888. egalised gambling having been done away with. On the other hand, the probable Customs receipts are set down at $1,000,000 This item gave rise to some sharp discussion in the Colonial Council, most of the members Foochow took place on the 12th instant close to considering the estimate excessive, but the Government adhered to it, relying on the assurance of the Director of Custome the fight is said by the Echo to have gone down that about that amount was certain to be on his knees before the rioters and requested to be noted that heavy dues have been im- ties had had enough of it. posed on goods which cannot possibly be and obtained from France, although the sole ob- front page of the Société Française des Charject of the establishment of Customs dues ever, after the recent declarations of M. ed by the French Government to M. The payments that will have to be made are calculated amount to 2,300,000 france, and the Colony's China are therefore excellent, and we sincerely balance is to be resorted to to enable the Government to at least keep its word.

Bast year the total expenditure was 26,739,844 france, or, say, roughly $6,634,961 from which has to be deducted, in order to make a comparison with the present year, the expenditure on Military, Posts and Telegraphs, and Indirect Taxes, amounting to $2,084,947, leaving a balance of $3,550,014. This year the expenditure, excluding the $4,653,600 contribution to the general Government of Indo-China, amounts to $2,796,135. The economies effected therefore amount to $753,879, or over 20 per cent. on last year's expenditure; but unforceen expenditure not provided for in the Estimates will doubtless go a long way towards de. creasing the difference between the two years. Still, it must be allowed that a substantial saving has been made. Naturally, however, the Colonial Councillors are disgusted that the control of the finances has been taken out of their hands; in fact three of them, including the two representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, have already

HONGKONG ARTILLERY VOLUN. TEERS' AMBULANCE DRILLS.

The introductory lecture on this subject was riven at Head Quarters on Tuesday evening, at 30 p.m., by Dr. Cantlie, the Surgeon to the Corps. Deputy Surgeon-General Lewer, Medical Staff, presided, Lieut. Woolley, and some thirty non-commissioned officers and mon were

Dr. LEWER introduced the lecturer as a Vo unteer Officer of untiring energy, and alluded gracefully to the distinguished services rendered by Dr. Cantlie in the organization of the Volunteer Medical Staff Corps. He congratulated the Volunteers on their good fortune in obtaining as their Surgeon a gentleman of such ominence in his profession, and urged the vit I importance of skilled aids in war and peace, in all cases of ccidental or other injuries.

Dr. Cantlie then sketched the work to be done and compared the present perfect organization of First Aid with that in vogue in the Survey fees Crimean war. In an interesting outline of the Egyptian Campaign he illustrated, by blackboard diagrams, the treatment of a soldier wounded at Metempeh and transferred through regimental bearers stretcher party, collecting station, dressing station, field hospital, base hospital, and Losses account 1876 transport hospital ship to Netley; pointing out the care taken to identify the man and provide his constantly changing surgeons with the hisry of his case. The lecturer asserted that the tedical Staff Corps' work in Egypt was perfect every detail, and the British transport hospital ships incomparably superior to all others. The regimental bearer system was explained, and the necessity of training for this service a larger number of men per company—two being a dangerously small factor-was urged. These regimental bearers having to keep up with their regiments in the fighting line can only give the bare life-saving aid to the wounded, and, consequently, a trained body of skilled men like the Interest account Medical Staff Corps is needed to supervise this Interest warrants lapsed under section DB hasty aid, and, after perfecting it, place the wounded in safety at the collecting station. The advances made of late years in bringing permanent dressings up to the scene of action have rendered amputation unnecessary in main instances, notably in the case of the knee joint Numerous wounds of this critical nature, which were successfully treated shortly after the man was shot, healed effectually during the Russo-Turkish war, and this permanent dressing system is now generally adopted. The field hospital, some 4,000 yards from the fighting line, is now replete with every appliance, surgical and dietary. The value of organization could have no more crucial test than that furnished by the Egyptian campaign, where the base hospital, at Cairo, was 1,500 miles from Metempeh, the scene was said to be the protection of French in- the society is formed to work the coal mines in of action, with a constantly threstened line of dustries. > The directors have now to submit to the shareholders a statement of accounts, showing the result of the company's working for the twelve months ending 31st December, 1897. The premia netted for that period amounts to $306,391.71. It is with great regret that the directors have to appounce considerable losses, arising chiefly out of the winding up of working account 1886. The working account 1887 has consequently been very much reduced, showing a credit balance of $9,000 as 3 per cent, interest to shareholders for the last half-year (making, with the 3 per cent, paid for the first six months, 6 per cent. for 1887) and to leave the remainder of the balance to be dealt with on the expiration of correct risks. Mr. H. Foss and Mr. M. Grote have resigned their seats at the Board, and it is the sad duty of the directors to announce the deaths of Mr. Lee Tack Chappy. and Mr. J. A. dos Remedios, who have been valuable members of the Board for several years. To fill some of these vacancies the directors have invited Mr. Lou Wal Chaen, Mr. St. C. Michaelsen, and Mr. F. Dodwell to join the Board, and their appointments quire the confirmation of the shareholders. Mr. J. B. Elins and Mr. Fung Tang retire in rotation, but offer themselves for re-election. The accounts have been audited by Mr. F. Hendor son, acting in Mr. T. Arnold's absence, and Mr. H. U. Jeffries, elected by the Hoard, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. L. Hauschild, who for thirteen years had faithfuly filled that office. The directors have much pleasure in recommending the re-election of Mr. Thos. Arnold and Mr. H. U. ST. C. MICHAELSEN, Chairman. Hongkong, 19th March, 1898.

In the second bottle I put 2 oz. of precipitated chalk and 20 oz. potassium chlorate, and in the third bottle I put two drams of cupric oxide and twenty onnes of potassium chiorate. I also put up half a pound sulphur. I wrote on the sulphur package the following direction-"Divide into three parts and mix one with the contents of each, bottle, just before using." After putting the ingredients into the bottles, they were corked, waxed, and capped with paper. I then wrapped the bottles separately in white paper, and over this three folds of corrugated paper. The sulphur I put in white paper first, then in brown paper, and finally tied it with string in corrugated paper. I got a box and placed some loose shred paper over the bottom of the Hooper, and said that in consequence of a death box. I put a layer of shred paper against the in his side of the box, then placed one of the bottles, then a layer of shred paper, and so on, with the packet of subline at the end, and covered the whole with shred paper. The following morning I sont the box to the Douglas Steamship Company. None of the ingredients in themselves are dangerous. If the sulphur got intimately mixed with the other ingredients it would still be harmless unless subjected to certain conditions, such as friction, or concussion when possibly spontaneous combustion would result, or perhaps explosion. From the way I a fire broke out in the Chinese quarter of the packed these goods it was impossible for their town situated alittle below the western extremity to become mixed. Assuming that these two substances were sufficiently mixed to explode. the friction cans d by broken glass rubbing about in the liex would have a tendency to cause an explosion. I have never manufactured fireworks, but I know the degree of care necessary to be taken in the preparation.

By his Lordship - Assuming one of the bottles in the box to be broken in placing the box on board, and the contents to have become mixed with the sulphur by the vibration of the ship. the action of the chief officer in moving the box and possibly throwing it on to the shelf would not cause an explosion, because I do not think that the sulphur, packed as it was, could possibly be woll enough mixed with the chlorate of potash Even if the ingredients were to come in conact sufficiently to explote by friction or some other agency, the explosion would only take place among these particles that were in actual contact, and the force of that explosion would not be sufficient to intermix the rest of the chlorate of potash with theirest of the sulphur so as to cause the whole to explode.

In the early days of the colony the Chinese inhabitants used commonly to thrust they had not time to visit during their last trip, out their sick and dying into the streets, there to perish. To remedy so scandalous a state of things the Government offered to provide a hospital for the exclusive use of the Chinese community: and this offer they accepted, with the provise that it should be under their own management. A suitable building was accordingly erected, and handed over to a Chinese committee in 1867. The medical staff are all
